

Titus Wolfe

Media information

The singer and guitarist Titus Wolfe has been active in the German and international music scene since the 1980s. In the musical tradition of folk and blues musicians of the 70s, he convinces with soulful singing and authentic guitar playing.

His latest album Ho-Ho-Kus N.J. was produced in the studio of Tom Merlynn with musicians from the Mink DeVille Band in New Jersey. Other well-known artists such as Joe Lynn Turner (singer Rainbow, Deep Purple) John Cariddi or David Rimelis also participated as guest musicians.

A show with Titus Wolfe and his guitar is an absolute must-see for all friends of handmade music, whether blues, folk, country or singer-songwriter ballads. Atmospheric, sometimes unusual arrangements, performed with a voice, in which a lot of valuable 70s feeling resonates.
